Lack of Basic Facilities in Private Recognised Schools in Delhi

1479. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have made any survey to know which of the private schools in Delhi recognised by the Delhi Administration, lack basic facilities and have failed to comply with the essential conditions laid down by the Delhi Administration for opening the schools; and

(b) if so, what are the details thereof, stating the names of such schools and the action being taken or is proposed to be taken by Government against the managements of such schools?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA): (a) No, Sir. Private Schools are recognised only if they meet the requirements laid down under the provisions of the Delhi School Education Act, 1973 and rules framed thereunder.

(b) Does not arise.

Review of Publication and Distribution of NCERT Text Books

1480. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to refer to answer to Unstarred Question 417 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 8th May, 1990 and state:

(a) whether Government have reviewed the present system of publication and distribution of NCERT text books to remove the shortcomings, if any; if so, what are the details thereof; and

(b) what steps have been taken by Government to remove the shortage of text books and to make the books available with the book sellers?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA): (a) and (b) The NCERT monitors the system of publication and distribution of text-books published by them from time to time. All the text-books for classes I to XII, except some text books required by schools in October/November, 1990 have been published by the NCERT and released for distribution through its sales outlets. The text-books published by NCERT are distributed through 8 sales emporia of the Publications Division of the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India, situated at New Delhi, Calcutta, Bombay, Madras, Patna, Lucknow, Hyderabad and Thiruananthapuram and 22 private wholesale agents (13 for the Union Teritory of Delhi and one each at Ahmedabad, Banglore, Bhopal, Bhubaneswar, Chandigarh, Guwahati, Jaipur, Jammu and Visakhapatnam) appointed by NCERT. In addition to these, the NCERT has been entertaining orders from schools for supply of text-books directly to them and has also been running a sales counter on the NCERT Campus in New Delhi for the convenience of the students/parents.

The NCERT text-books are printed/reprinted in sufficient quantities and adequate quantities of the books have been made available to the sales emporia of the Publications Division of the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India as well as to the private wholesale agents for distribution in different parts of the country.
